VAUDEVILLE TEAM AT THE IDORA IS CONTINUED HIT

LOURRAINE SISTERS IN "INDIAN DANCE" CAPTIVATE THE HOUSE.

At the Idora theatre last night the Lorraine Sisters repeated their famous "Indian Dance" to three most appreciative audiences. These young women show at their best in this endeavor and their costuming is something immense. For tonight they have an entire change of program and it is promised that it will be up to the minute.

Among the pictures that will be shown tonight might be mentioned one that is the work of Windsor McCay of the New York Herald, one of the foremost cartoonists of the present day and the man who has made the "Little Nemo" series of children beloved cartoons famous the world over. In a joking way a friend of Mr. McCay's asked him if he had any idea that he could produce "moving Comics." The idea appealed to the artist and he immediately took hold of the proposition, with the result that tonight will be shown "Bob Sterling at Long Island" from the pencil of this versatile artist. The picture is by the Vitaphone company. The other pictures for tonight are "The White Squaw" (Pathe) and "Across the Plains" an Essanay production of frontier life in the early days. All are first-class pictures.

For next week the Wellington Brothers will be the attraction. This is a vaudeville team of the first magnitude. They have recently entered the state of Nevada following successes along the coast and especially in San Francisco and Oakland. They have a change for every day in the week and each is booked as superior to its predecessor. They put on a burlesque "female impersonation" stunt that is immense, while one member of the team is a demon of his feat, performing a dance on roller skates that is little short of marvelous. It will not pay any lover of the show to miss this sterling attraction.

CLUB HOUSE OPENED.

LONDON, May 4.—The new club house of the Society of American Women in London, in South Audley street, was opened by Mrs. Reid, wife of the American ambassador, yesterday Mrs. H. V. Hoover presided and made an address.

LI, CAOTAI OF CANTON, HAS BEEN ASSASSINATED

REBELS AGAIN STRONG—GATES
OF CITY CLOSED—LOYALTY
OF TROOPS DOUBTED.

HONG KONG, May 4.—Li, the caotai of Canton, has been assassinated by the rebels, who are again strong. The gates of the city have been closed. The loyalty of the troops is doubted and this fear has caused much excitement among the peaceful inhabitants of Canton.

Refugees arriving here confirm earlier reports of the uprising at Canton which appears to have been instituted by anti-Manchus who went to that city from Macao and Hong Kong and spread the revolutionary propaganda among the troops at the time when they were nursing several grievances.

Hundreds of rebels have been killed or wounded in the fighting which began with the attack on the viceroys' palace last week. Brigadier General Chung was mortally wounded while attempting to suppress the revolt and died yesterday.

Two British torpedo boat destroyers have been sent to Canton from here.

STOCKTON ASKS FOR A POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Postmaster General Hitchcock today received a request from the clearing house of Stockton, Cal., asking that a postal savings bank be established in that town. It was signed by every banker in the place. The postmaster countersigned it and told the postmaster general he believed there was a crying necessity for such an establishment in that city.

This is the first request that bankers as a body have made to have a postal savings bank established in their vicinity. They told Hitchcock that it would put more money into circulation, as many of the poor refuse to deposit their savings with private institutions.

Postmaster General Hitchcock is elated with the request which comes from the class which so strongly opposed the establishment of government banks when they were first opened.

SMALL BOY SAVES ANOTHER FROM DEATH

REPORTED MISSING.

EASTON, Pa., May 4.—One more teacher, Miss Margaret Jones, of Utica, is reported among the missing in the wreck at Martins creek. Word was received yesterday afternoon, saying Miss Jones is not at home and as she has not been accounted for, it is assumed she perished in the disaster. If she is dead the total of the disaster at this time is twelve.

BOXING LEGALIZED.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 4.—By a vote of 20 to 3 the Carroll bill which legalizes six-round bouts promoted by incorporated athletic associations or clubs was yesterday passed in the senate. In its amended form the bill permits boxing provided a license is secured from the mayor of the city or the board of trustees in villages and towns.

TONOPAH BELMONT ISSUES ITS EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

The eighth annual report of the Tonopah-Belmont Development company, for the fiscal year ending February 28, 1911, which was adopted by the board of directors at its meeting in Philadelphia yesterday, gives figures virtually as previously reported in the Bonanza. Further the report states that in the mine is "positive" ore to the amount of 269,324 tons and 182,714 tons of probable ore; which carries an estimated value of approximately $15,000,000, as stated in this paper on April 26th. It has since been learned that the ore reported as "probable" is "positive."

ELKS ARE OUT IN FORCE AND LADIES ARRAYED IN SPLENDOR

Most Enjoyable Evening Is Spent By
Members of Tonopah Lodge B. P. O.
E. No. 1062 In Dance and Mammoth Banquet.

Elkdom in all its glory turned out last night for the grand annual dance of Tonopah lodge No. 1062. Not only the Tonopah members but those from Manhattan, Millers and other points in this vicinity, besides several visitors from foreign lodges. And the ladies, they were arrayed in all their splendor. Gowns that would have been a credit to the finest ballroom in the land were worn by the ladies of the "Bills." And again, the ladies were bedecked with jewels until the New York "400" would have stood aghast. And, best of all, everybody spent a most enjoyable evening—and portion of the morning. Dance followed dance in quick succession and

"There was sound of revelry by night, And Tonopah had gathered then Her beauty and her chivalry And bright the lights shone o'er Fair women and brave men."

A dash of solemnity was cast over the gathering at that mystic hour of "eleven" when every member of Elkdom pauses a few seconds and mentally journeys backward to "absent brothers." Hugh H. Brown had previously been chosen to deliver the toast at this time and he delivered it with a feeling that was touching in the extreme. He chose wisely for the toast "If," one of those masterpieces of that great master of modern poetry, Rudyard Kipling. The poem follows:

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;

If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings

And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforbearing minute

With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,

And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

While the toast was being delivered every Elk joined hands and so many were present that they filled the entire four sides of the hall. The banquet hall proved up to the expectations of all. The feast was perfect, the chief having done himself proud and provided a feast that could not be beat. The hall was one mass of floral decorations and blended perfectly with the various colored gowns and the jewels of the ladies present.

The committees in charge of the arrangements for the ball, to whom all credit is due for their sterling efforts are composed of the following:

Music—I. F. Davis and J. T. Garner.
Printing and invitation—L. N. Gagne and W. J. Wilson.
Decorations—W. K. Wise.
Banquet—J. J. Hefferan, R. G. Pohl, Puddy Grimes and Lowell Daniels.
Floor—W. B. Hefferan, P. C. Fisher, Roy Crump, Ed Malley, F. K. Pittman, R. J. Highland, P. J. McDonald, Reece Rover, Milan Davidovich and C. C. Johnson.
Reception—H. C. Schmidt, T. W. Kendall, F. N. Jones, P. E. Keeler, E. P. Mannix and T. A. Musante.
Finance—Ross Condon, H. E. Epstine and J. J. McQuillan.
Door—W. T. Cuddy and Robert Christian.

The annual Elks' dance of 1911 is now but a memory, and according to all who were in attendance, it is one of the pleasant and lasting memories that will stay with man throughout the entire time of his tenure on this sphere.

MALLEY GOES TO CAPTURE A WILD NEGRESS

SINGLE-HANDED THE SHERIFF
WILL BEAR WRATH OF A CRAZY WOMAN.

Piling rapidly upon the great Elks' dance of last night are trials and tribulations for Sheriff Malley. He was called to Manhattan this morning to bring into camp one Minerva Smith, a lady of color, who for years past has been in anything but her right mind. However, today, Minerva has taken a turn for the worse and has barricaded herself in her cabin, after having armed herself with a trusty shotgun and revolver and defied the entire of Manhattan. The appeal was made to the sheriff and he made a hasty trip to the neighboring town. He promised that he would, single-handed, storm the fort and bring home the belligerent negress.

Last October and November, when eggs were 70 cents a dozen, the Yandle household got 166 eggs more than 20 eggs a month per hen.

MAY ABOLISH JUDGE

BEN LINDSEY'S COURT

DENVER, May 4.—Mayor Speer stated yesterday morning that he would appoint the present incumbents of county offices, so that they would hold until the next city election a year hence. This will shorten the terms of office of those who were elected last fall and who are affected by the decision of the supreme court in the consolidation case, excepting the county treasurer and county commissioners. The decision held that there were no county offices. It is said there is also a possibility that the juvenile court, presided over by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, may be abolished as a result of the supreme court decision, but this is doubtful. It has been under the direction of the county commissioners but has had state recognition.
